

LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY

I, the undersigned, do affirm my authority to sign this document on behalf of the entity named herein.

Under my authority to receive certain funds owed according to public records, and acknowledging that these funds, whether held as excess proceeds from sale of assets, or as outstanding or stale-dated or over-aged warrants, checks, dividends, or bankruptcy proceeds that are collectable by that entity known as: _____, as owner or payee,

DO HEREBY:

(1) Appoint _____ as its agent, to act in its name and place, and for its benefit and on its behalf with the limited authority and power to do the following:

- (a) Claim idle funds described as an unredeemed or unclaimed check/warrant:
- (b) Demand and secure the re-issuance and/or possession of these funds and receive them in our name.

Payee Name	Warrant No	Issue Date	Amount
------------	------------	------------	--------

(2) Appoint _____ its attorney in fact for the limited purpose of securing by all means convenient and lawful the re-issuance and/or possession of the funds described above. To accomplish this limited purpose, I/We give _____ the authority to appoint substitute attorneys (fully responsible to us alone), to sign, execute, acknowledge, and deliver the required claims, affidavits, petitions, and any other documents reasonably requested, and to endorse, deposit, and/or negotiate the replacement check/warrant, and subsequently to obtain any and all documentation regarding the disposition of the check/warrant after it is delivered. In no case shall this Attorney-in-Fact or their appointees incur any financial obligation or expense on our behalf.

(3) Declare this Power of Attorney to be exclusive and irrevocable, superseding all others in regard to these funds, and that this Power of Attorney expires and becomes void following the completion of all provisions of the agreement between the parties.
